

Working with HACC Clients with Vision & Hearing Impairments

Improve your awareness, understanding and communication skills when working with clients

Training provided by Vision Australia occupational therapist, orthoptist, orientation mobility instructor, community engagement officers and Deaf Services.

Topics include:

- Presentations by Vision Australia occupational therapist, orthoptist, orientation mobility instructor, community engagement officers and Deaf Services
- Visit to Vision Australia shop to see resources available
- Tour of Services
- Morning & afternoon tea & lunch provided

STARS provides training for HACC services in the local government areas of Canterbury, Marrickville and Leichhardt.

Volunteer Network provides training for HACC volunteers in the LGA's of Burwood, Ashfield, Strathfield, Leichhardt and Canada Bay.

Who for?

This course is for volunteers and staff who wish to increase their knowledge and understanding and also improve communication with Home and Community Care (HACC) clients who have vision and/or hearing impairments.

When:

Monday 28th May 2012

Time:

9.30am – 2.30pm

Location:

Vision Australia Training room

4 Mitchell Street, Enfield

Parking available onsite

Cost:

$10.00 HACC volunteers, $20.00 HACC staff. Others welcome to attend if places are available.

Trainers:

Vision Australia staff

For bookings and enquiries call STARS on 9750-9344 or starstraining@4cs.org.au

Essential training for anyone who is supporting clients who have a vision and /or hearing impairment