The main objective of the model Work, Health, Safety Act (WHS) 2011 is to provide for a balanced and nationally consistent framework to secure the health and safety of workers and workplaces.

The purpose of this briefing session is to inform the Board of Directors, CEOs and other “Officers” of the model Work Health Safety Act 2011 positive duty of “due diligence” and how they can ensure their organisation is working in accordance with the new act and in line with best practice.

This briefing session will provide participants with the knowledge and tools to successfully implement the new legislation into their existing safety management system.

Participants will be provided with self-evaluation tools to determine gaps and deficiencies in their safety management system and its implementation.

A sample WHS Improvement Plan linked to KPIs is also provided as a tool to assist with designated Officers’ “State of Knowledge”.
